

1. Poll Schedule – On election day, each polling place will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time. A voter in line by 8:00 p.m. has the right to vote.
2. Voter ID – If you have registered and voted in the same election district before, you do not need to show identification to vote. Only individuals voting in an election district for the first time must provide one of the following forms of identification:
 - PA driver’s license or PennDOT ID Card
 - Photo ID issued by any Commonwealth agency;
 - Photo ID issued by the U.S. Government;
 - U.S. Passport;
 - U.S. Armed Forces ID;
 - Student ID with a photo; or
 - Employee ID with a photoAlternatively, you can provide one of the following documents if they contain your name and current address:
 - Confirmation of registration from the Voter Registration Office;
 - Non-photo ID issued by the Pennsylvania or U.S. Government;
 - Firearm permit;
 - Current utility bill;
 - Current bank statement; or
 - Current paycheck or government check.
3. Accessibility – In some cases, a polling place may not be easily accessible for those with disabilities. Elderly voters and individuals with disabilities who are assigned to an inaccessible polling place have the right to an alternative ballot. For more information on alternative ballots, see 866ourvote.org or call 866-OUR-VOTE.
4. Assistance at the polls – A voter who is unable to read, write or speak English or who is blind or otherwise physically disabled has the right to receive help voting from a person of their choice except the voter’s employer, an agent of the voter’s employer, or an officer or agent of the voter’s union.
5. If a voter has moved – If a registered voter has moved within Pennsylvania, they may vote at the polling place of their OLD residence after filling out a form with their new address information at the polling place.
6. Polling place boundary – Voters have the right to wait to vote (or to vote) without anyone electioneering or trying to influence their vote in any other way within 10 feet of the entrance of the room in which voting is taking place.
7. Provisional ballots – A voter has the right to vote by provisional ballot if the voter believes they are properly registered to vote and: (a) the voter’s name does not appear on the list of registered voters for the precinct; (b) the new voter does not provide identification at the polling place; (c) the voter requested an absentee ballot that they did not receive or did not cast; (d) the voter’s right to vote has been challenged by an inspector who believes the voter is not entitled to vote at that precinct; or (e) a federal or state court order extends the time for closing the polls beyond that established by state law and the voter votes during the extended period of time. However, a provisional ballot should be a last resort. Within seven days after the election, the County Board of Elections will examine your provisional ballot to determine if it is valid. After this seven-day period, you can find out if your provisional ballot was counted, partially counted or not counted.
