1. Poll Schedule - On Election Day, each polling place is required to be open from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. (local time). A voter in line by 6:00 p.m. (local time) has the right to vote.

   NOTE: For the November 3, 2020 general election, registered voters concerned with contracting or spreading COVID-19 can request a ballot by mail. An online portal to request your absentee ballot is available here: https://vrsws.sos.ky.gov/abrweb/.

   The deadline to apply for an absentee ballot is October 9, 2020 but voters are encouraged to apply as soon as possible to help ensure their ballot arrives in a timely manner.

   Absentee ballots must be postmarked by November 3, 2020 and must be received by November 6, 2020. Voters do not have to pay postage to mail in their absentee ballot. Additionally, there are drop boxes where voters can drop off their completed absentee ballots. Voters should contact their county clerk's office for the locations of absentee ballot drop box locations.

   Voters can check the status of their absentee ballot here: https://vrsws.sos.ky.gov/VIC/.

   For the November 3, 2020 general election ONLY, all voters may vote early in-person. Early voting begins on October 13, 2020 and will be offered every weekday between October 13 and November 3, including every Saturday for at least four hours. Check with your local clerk to determine times and locations for early in-person voting.

   Anyone may vote early in-person, the voter need not be concerned about contracting or spreading COVID-19 to vote in this manner.

2. Voter ID -

   - For the November 3, 2020 general election, Kentuckians who were unable to get a driver's license or photo ID due to the pandemic because their clerk's office was closed, or because they were afraid of exposing themselves to COVID-19, can sign a document explaining this concern and cast their ballot.

   A voter is required to provide identification at the polling place or be identified by an election officer by personal acquaintance. If the voter DOES NOT HAVE acceptable identification and cannot return home to obtain such ID, as a last resort he or she can vote by provisional ballot on Election Day. Acceptable forms of ID include:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Proof of identification is limited to a document issued by:</th>
<th>Voters without an acceptable photo ID need to produce one of the following forms of non-photo ID to the election officer:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• The US or Kentucky government that contains the voter's name and photograph</td>
<td>• Social Security Card</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>•</td>
<td>• Voter ID card issued by the SBOE</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- The US Department of Defense that contains the voter’s name and photograph
- A public or private college, university, or postgraduate technical or professional school located in the US that contains the voter’s name and photograph
- Any city, county, urban-county, charter county, consolidated or local government located in Kentucky that contains the voter’s name and photograph
- Any ID card with the voter’s photo and name
- Any food stamp ID card, EBT card, or SNAP card issued by Kentucky
- A credit or debit card with the name of the voter

The voter also must sign an affidavit stating the voter has one of the following reasonable impediments to obtaining an acceptable photo ID:
- Lack of transportation
- Inability to financially afford a copy of their birth certificate or other underlying documentation
- Work schedule
- Lost or stolen ID
- Disability or illness
- Family responsibilities
- The ID has been applied for but not yet received
- Religious objection to being photographed

3. Accessibility - The county board of elections shall designate as voting places only those places that are accessible to all eligible voters, including those with physical limitations and the elderly.

4. Assistance at the polls - If a voter cannot read, write, speak English, or they are blind or are otherwise physically disabled, the voter has the right to receive help with voting from a person of their choice except the voter’s employer or an agent of the employer, or an officer or agent of the voter’s union. Voters requiring assistance may be required to sign an oath stating that, due to blindness, physical disability, or inability to read English, s/he requires assistance.

5. If a voter has moved - If you have a new address in the same precinct, and you move before the voter registration deadline, you should update your address at govotekentucky.com or with your county clerk. If you move after the voter registration deadline within the same precinct and have a new address, you should go to the polling place for your new address and update your address there. If you moved to a different precinct, but within the same county either before or after the end of voter registration, you can update the registration records and vote in the present election at the precinct designated for your new address upon affirmation of your new address and signing the precinct list (You must also confirm your identity and submit an affidavit). If you move to a different county before the end of voter registration deadline, you must update your voter registration address with the new county clerk or renew your driver’s license in the new county prior to the voter registration deadline or you will not be eligible to vote in either county. If you move to a different county after the voter registration deadline, you may vote at the appropriate precinct for your old residence in your previous county of residence, but you must re-register to vote in your new county of residence for future elections. The voter registration deadline for the May 19, 2020 primary election is April 20, 2020 and the voter registration deadline for the November 3, 2020 general election is October 5, 2020. If a voter’s name is not on the precinct roster and his/her registration status cannot be verified or a voter’s name is not on the precinct roster and he/she has been verified as ineligible to vote, the voter is entitled to cast a provisional ballot (see paragraph 8 below).

6. Mistake ballot - If a voter makes a mistake or “spoils” his or her provisional ballot before casting it, he or she has the right to receive a replacement ballot after returning the spoiled ballot.

If you have any questions or need further information, please call the Election Protection Hotline at 1-866-OUR-VOTE (1-866-687-8683) or go to www.866OurVote.org. For Spanish call 1-888-Ve-Y-Vota; for various Asian languages, call 1-888-API-VOTE; for Arabic, call 1-844 YALLA-US.
7. Policing place boundary - Electioneering is not permitted within 100 feet of the entrance of polling places or polling rooms; within this space, voters have the right to wait to vote (or to vote) without anyone trying to influence their vote in any way.

8. Provisional ballots - A voter has the right to vote by provisional ballot if a voter: does not meet the requirements following a change of address; does not have proper identification; is not listed on the rolls at the precinct; or has his or her eligibility challenged by four poll workers. A provisional ballot should be a last resort; you should try to explore every lawful means to help an eligible voter cast a regular ballot.

9. Voting in the 2020 presidential primary - Kentucky has closed party primary elections, which means you must register as a Democrat or a Republican to vote in that party’s primary election. If you select “Other” as your party registration, you are eligible to vote in nonpartisan city and judicial primary elections ONLY.
