1. Poll schedule for early voting - One-stop absentee voting (commonly known as “early voting”) begins on the third Thursday prior to Election Day and ends on the last Saturday before Election Day.

   Poll schedule for Election Day - On Election Day, each polling place will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Eastern Time. A voter who is in line by 7:30 p.m. has the right to vote.

2. Voter ID - There is currently no requirement to show photo ID in North Carolina. Voters utilizing same-day registration or first-time voters who registered to vote by mail and did not provide verification of their ID at the time of registration must present ID at the polling place. Acceptable forms of ID include:

   | - driver’s license or state non-operators ID      | - utility bill |
   | - US Passport, employee ID                        | - bank statement |
   | - student ID                                      | - paycheck      |
   | - college or university ID (if the college or university verifies residency) | - any government document that shows your name and address |
   | - military ID                                     |

3. Accessibility - All polling places should be accessible to voters with disabilities. Additionally, there should be voting equipment at every polling place to accommodate voters with disabilities, including non-visual accessibility for the blind and visually impaired.

4. Assistance at the polls - Any voter has the right to receive assistance from a near family member. If a voter has trouble reading, regardless of whether it is related to language ability, vision problems, or literacy challenges, the voter has the right to receive help voting from a person of his or her choice except the voter’s employer, an agent of the voter’s employer, or an officer or agent of the voter’s union.

5. If a voter has moved - If a voter moved within 30 days of Election Day, they are still qualified to vote in their prior polling place and are only eligible to vote that ballot. If the voter moved more than 30 days prior to Election Day to a new county, they will need to update their registration by mail no later than 25 days prior to Election Day or through same-day registration during the early voting period. If the new residence is within the same county, they are allowed to vote a regular ballot at the new polling place, or a provisional ballot at the old one. If the new residence is within the same precinct, the polling place will be the same and, they are able to vote a regular ballot.

6. Mistake on ballot - If you make an error in marking your ballot, you may request another ballot by returning your ballot to the ballot table. If you have already deposited your ballot, you may not request another.

7. Polling place boundary - North Carolina law requires that any campaign related activity be conducted beyond a buffer zone of generally 50 feet from the entrance to the polling place.

8. Provisional ballots - A voter has the right to vote, whether by regular or provisional ballot, if they are present to vote. Provisional ballots are permitted when (a) there is no record of voter’s registration; (b) the voter does not report a move; (c) the voter’s registration was previously removed; (d) a first-time voter does not provide acceptable identification (see Question #2) at the polling place; (e) the voter’s address is unrecognized; (f) the voter is not in the proper precinct; (g) there is a dispute regarding the voter’s jurisdiction; or (h) a federal or state court order extends the time for closing the polls beyond that established by state law and the voter votes during the extended period of time. For voters who cast a provisional ballot because they did not include required information on their voter registration application and did provide identification on Election Day (See Question #2), the voter must provide the missing information to the county board of elections by 5:00 p.m. on
