17. IDENTIFICATION: What identification is required to vote?

Arizona law requires voters to provide ID, but it does not have to be photo ID. Here is the list of acceptable forms of identification.²⁸

List #1 – Photo ID including name and the voter’s registered precinct address:

- Arizona driver’s license;
- Arizona non-operating identification card;
- Tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification; or
- United States federal, state, or local government issued identification (U.S. passports require a second form of identification because they do not include the individual’s address, see below).

List #2 – ID without a photograph that bears the voter’s name and registered precinct address (two forms are required):

- Utility bill that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election;
- Bank or credit union statement that is dated within 90 days of the date of the election;
- Arizona vehicle registration;
- Arizona vehicle insurance card;
- Indian census card, tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification;
- Property tax statement;
- Recorder’s Certificate;
- Voter registration card;
- U.S. federal, state, or local government issued identification; or
- Any mailing to the voter marked “Official Election Material.”

List #3 – Voters may present a hybrid form of ID that contains elements from both lists. Acceptable combinations include:

- Any valid photo identification from List 1 in which the address does not reasonably match the voter’s registered precinct address, accompanied by a non-photo identification from List 2 in which the address does reasonably match the precinct register;
- U.S. Passport without address and one valid item from List 2; or
- U.S. Military identification without address and one valid item from List 2.²⁹

Identification is deemed valid unless it can be determined on its face that it has expired.³⁰ If poll workers are turning voters away because they don’t have a photo ID, you should flag your hotline captain immediately.

²⁸ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-579 (A).

²⁹ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-579(A)(1)(c).

³⁰ Election Procedures Manual at 4.

Voters unable to provide identification at the polling place should be given a conditional provisional ballot. The conditional provisional ballot will be valid and counted if the voter provides valid identification to his or her polling location before 7:00 pm on Election Day. Alternatively, the voter has up to 10 calendar days after a general election that includes an election for a federal office and 5 business days after any other election to provide his or her identification to his or her county elections office.³¹ (in contrast a provisional ballot does not require the voter to bring identification for the ballot to be counted.)³²

Members of federally recognized Native American tribes who do not provide one form of identification from lists one, two, or three will receive a provisional ballot (not a conditional provisional ballot) upon presenting one form of tribal identification that bears the name of the elector.³³ Acceptable forms of tribal identification include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Tribal identification card, tribal enrollment card, or Certificate of Indian Blood issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally recognized Native American tribe;
- Voter identification card issued under the authority of a federally recognized Native American tribe;
- Home site assignment lease, permit or allotment issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally recognized Native American tribe; or
- Grazing permit or allotment issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally recognized Native American tribe.

18. NO IDENTIFICATION: Can I vote without providing identification?

Voters unable to provide identification at the polling place should be provided with a conditional provisional ballot.

The conditional provisional ballot will be valid and counted if the voter provides valid identification to their polling location before 7:00 pm on Election Day. Alternatively, the voter has up to 10 calendar days after a general election that includes an election for a federal office and 5 business days after any other election to provide their identification to their county elections office.³⁴ A conditional provisional ballot is distinct from a provisional ballot, which does not require the voter to bring identification in order for the ballot to be counted.³⁵

19. NOT ON ROLLS AT MY POLLING PLACE: I am at my polling place but am not showing up on the voter registration roll. Can I vote where I am?

A voter must cast their ballot at their assigned precinct. If a voter believes they are at the correct polling place for their precinct and cannot be located on the rolls, they may still vote a provisional ballot. The voter will need to give a sworn statement that they live in the precinct, are registered to vote, and have not previously voted in this election.³⁶

³⁶ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-584(E).

Arizona law provides that a provisional ballot will not be counted if a voter casts a provisional ballot in a polling place other than their correct precinct. Elections officials are supposed to look up a voter's address and direct the voter to the right polling place. Voters can find out whether their provisional votes were counted by checking the Secretary of State's website using their provision ballot number: provisional ballot status

Some counties set up voting centers in which voters from several precincts may "receive the appropriate ballot for that voter" after the voter presents acceptable ID for the precinct for which they requested a ballot.³⁷

20. PROVISIONAL BALLOT: If I don't have an ID, can I request a provisional ballot? My name is not on the rolls at my polling place, can I request a provisional ballot?

If a voter believes they are at the correct polling place for their precinct and cannot be located on the rolls, they may still vote a provisional ballot. The voter will need to give a sworn statement that they live in the precinct, are registered to vote, and have not previously voted in this election.³⁸

Any activity, directly or indirectly, that is intended to or does threaten to make use of force or violence or to restrain, harass, or coerce voters, whether inside or outside of the 75-foot limit, is prohibited.⁸⁵

NO GUNS are permitted within the 75-foot area or inside the polling place.⁸⁶

“Openly carrying a firearm outside the 75-foot limit is also problematic and likely to result in unlawful voter intimidation. Additionally, any aggressive or ostentatious display of a weapon will almost certainly constitute an act of intimidation.”⁸⁷

66. CHALLENGE: Someone is formally challenging my vote. What should I do?

Voters are presumed to be properly registered to vote on completion of a registration form that contains at least the name, the residence address or the location, the date of birth, the signature or other statement of the voter, and a checkmark or other appropriate indicator that the person answered "yes" to the question regarding citizenship.⁹⁰

A qualified voter registered in the relevant county may orally challenge a voter on the ground that the voter has already voted before in the election.⁹¹ In addition, a designated challenger⁹² may challenge a voter by presenting clear and convincing evidence that:

- The voter is not the person whose name appears on the voter roll;
- The voter has not resided in this state for twenty-nine days (or there are other residency concerns);
- The voter is not properly registered at a proper address; or
- The voter is not a qualified voter.⁹³

If the challenged voter appears to be registered, the voter must take and sign an oath stating that the information they provided to the election officials is correct. If a majority of the election board is satisfied that the challenge is not valid, the voter shall be permitted to vote a regular ballot. If the challenged voter refuses to be sworn or affirmed, refuses to answer material questions, or if a majority of the election board finds that the challenge is valid, the voter shall be permitted to vote a provisional ballot.⁹⁴

67. POLICE/MILITARY PRESENCE: There are police/members of the military at the polling place. Is this okay? What should I do?

Except for members of the public who are using the voting location for its normal purpose (for example, children going to school), Arizona law limits who may be inside of the 75-foot limit. See Question 65. In addition, any activity, directly or indirectly, that is intended to or does threaten to make use of force or violence or to restrain, harass, or coerce voters, whether inside or outside of the 75-foot limit, is prohibited.⁹⁵

Note to hotline volunteer: If you learn of police/members of the military at the polling place, notify your hotline captain immediately.

⁹² Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-590.

⁹³ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-121.01(B).

⁹⁴ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-592.

⁹⁵ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-1013.

A voter's name can only be removed from the list of registered voters in the case of:

- Their written request,
- A felony conviction that has not been reversed or set aside,
- Court order,
- Incapacitation that results in guardianship,
- Death,
- A judgment that directs a cancellation to be made,
- Change of residency outside the jurisdiction,
- If the voter has remained on the inactive voter list for four consecutive years and has not voted in two federal general elections, or
- When a voter notifies the County Recorder that they have moved within the county but fails to complete a new registration form within twenty-nine days.⁹⁶

Any voter whose name was removed in one of the above ways and who subsequently becomes eligible to vote must re-register in order to have their name restored to the rolls. If a voter's name has been removed from the rolls and the voter registration deadline has passed, offer to call the jurisdiction with the voter in an attempt to resolve the situation if time allows. Otherwise, provide the jurisdiction's phone number to the voter.

You can take steps to help to determine why a voter's name is not on the list of registered voters:

- Check the voter's registration status using the registration lookup tool to make sure they are registered to vote and at the right place. (see Question 1)
- Has the voter moved recently? Could they be registered at an old address? Check that address in the registration lookup tool. (see Question 1 and Question 6)
- Has the voter changed their name recently, or could they be registered under a different name? Check that name (and any variations of the voter's name, especially for hyphenated names, which sometimes trip up databases) in the registration lookup tool. (see Question 1)
- When/where did the voter register to vote? Was that before the deadline?
- Ask poll workers to check the add-on, inactive, and other lists for the voter's name.

69. PROVISIONAL BALLOT: I have been offered a provisional ballot. What should I do?

Ask why the voter was offered a provisional ballot. Voters should be offered a provisional ballot if:

- The voter's name does not appear on the signature roster or inactive list but the voter (1) provides identification verifying their name and address within the precinct and (2) signs an affirmation stating that they are a registered and eligible to vote in that jurisdiction;⁹⁷
- If a voter moved to a new address within the county but did not notify the county recorder before the date of the election. The voter must present identification that includes their name and address, which must be within the precinct in which they are attempting to vote, and the voter must affirm that they are registered and eligible to vote in the jurisdiction;⁹⁸
- The voter is challenged at the polling place, and the voter refuses to be sworn or affirmed, or to answer material questions, or the challenge is upheld by the election judges;⁹⁹
- The voter has changed their name;¹⁰⁰

¹⁰⁰ Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 16-137.

- The voter becomes requested an absentee ballot but wants to vote in-person instead.¹⁰¹

Other than for these reasons, the voter should be able to cast a regular ballot.¹⁰² A provisional ballot should be a last resort. If the voter needs to cast a conditional provisional ballot because they did not present valid ID, they should be given instructions on how, when, and where to provide proof of identification (see Question 5).

The polling station should have notices informing voters of their rights when using a provisional ballot.¹⁰³ If the voter casts a provisional ballot remind the voter to ask the poll worker if any additional steps will be needed to make sure the ballot is counted. Voters who cast provisional ballots may check the status of their provisional ballots on the Arizona Secretary of State’s website using their provisional ballot number, <https://voter.azsos.gov/VoterView/ProvisionalBallotSearch.do>.

ACCESSIBILITY/ASSISTANCE

70. LANGUAGE ACCESS: I am not an English speaker. What language resources are available? Can I bring someone in the booth to help me understand the ballot?

Yes. Any voter may, at their option, be accompanied and assisted by any person of the voter’s own choice or be assisted by two election officials, one from each major political party, during any process relating to voting or during the actual process of voting.¹⁰⁴

Counties are strongly encouraged, but not required, to make voting materials available in Spanish.¹⁰⁵ The following counties are also required to provide voting materials and assistance in languages other than English:¹⁰⁶

If a voter resides in one of these counties and needs assistance, they may ask for assistance from election poll workers or a person of their choice. Because most Native American languages are unwritten, the counties listed above for Native American languages are required to transmit the information orally.¹⁰⁷

71. CURBSIDE VOTING: Is curbside voting available? How do I request it?

Voters who are unable to enter the polling location or voting center may ask that a ballot be brought to them by an election poll worker.¹⁰⁸

72. VOTER GUIDE: Can I bring a voting guide or reference notes with me into the voting booth?

Voters can bring their notes, a voter's guide, or a sample ballot into the voting booth. Some polling places do restrict cell phone use, so bring paper copies instead of using your phone.¹⁰⁹

73. QUESTIONS: Who should I contact if I have questions about any of the above?
